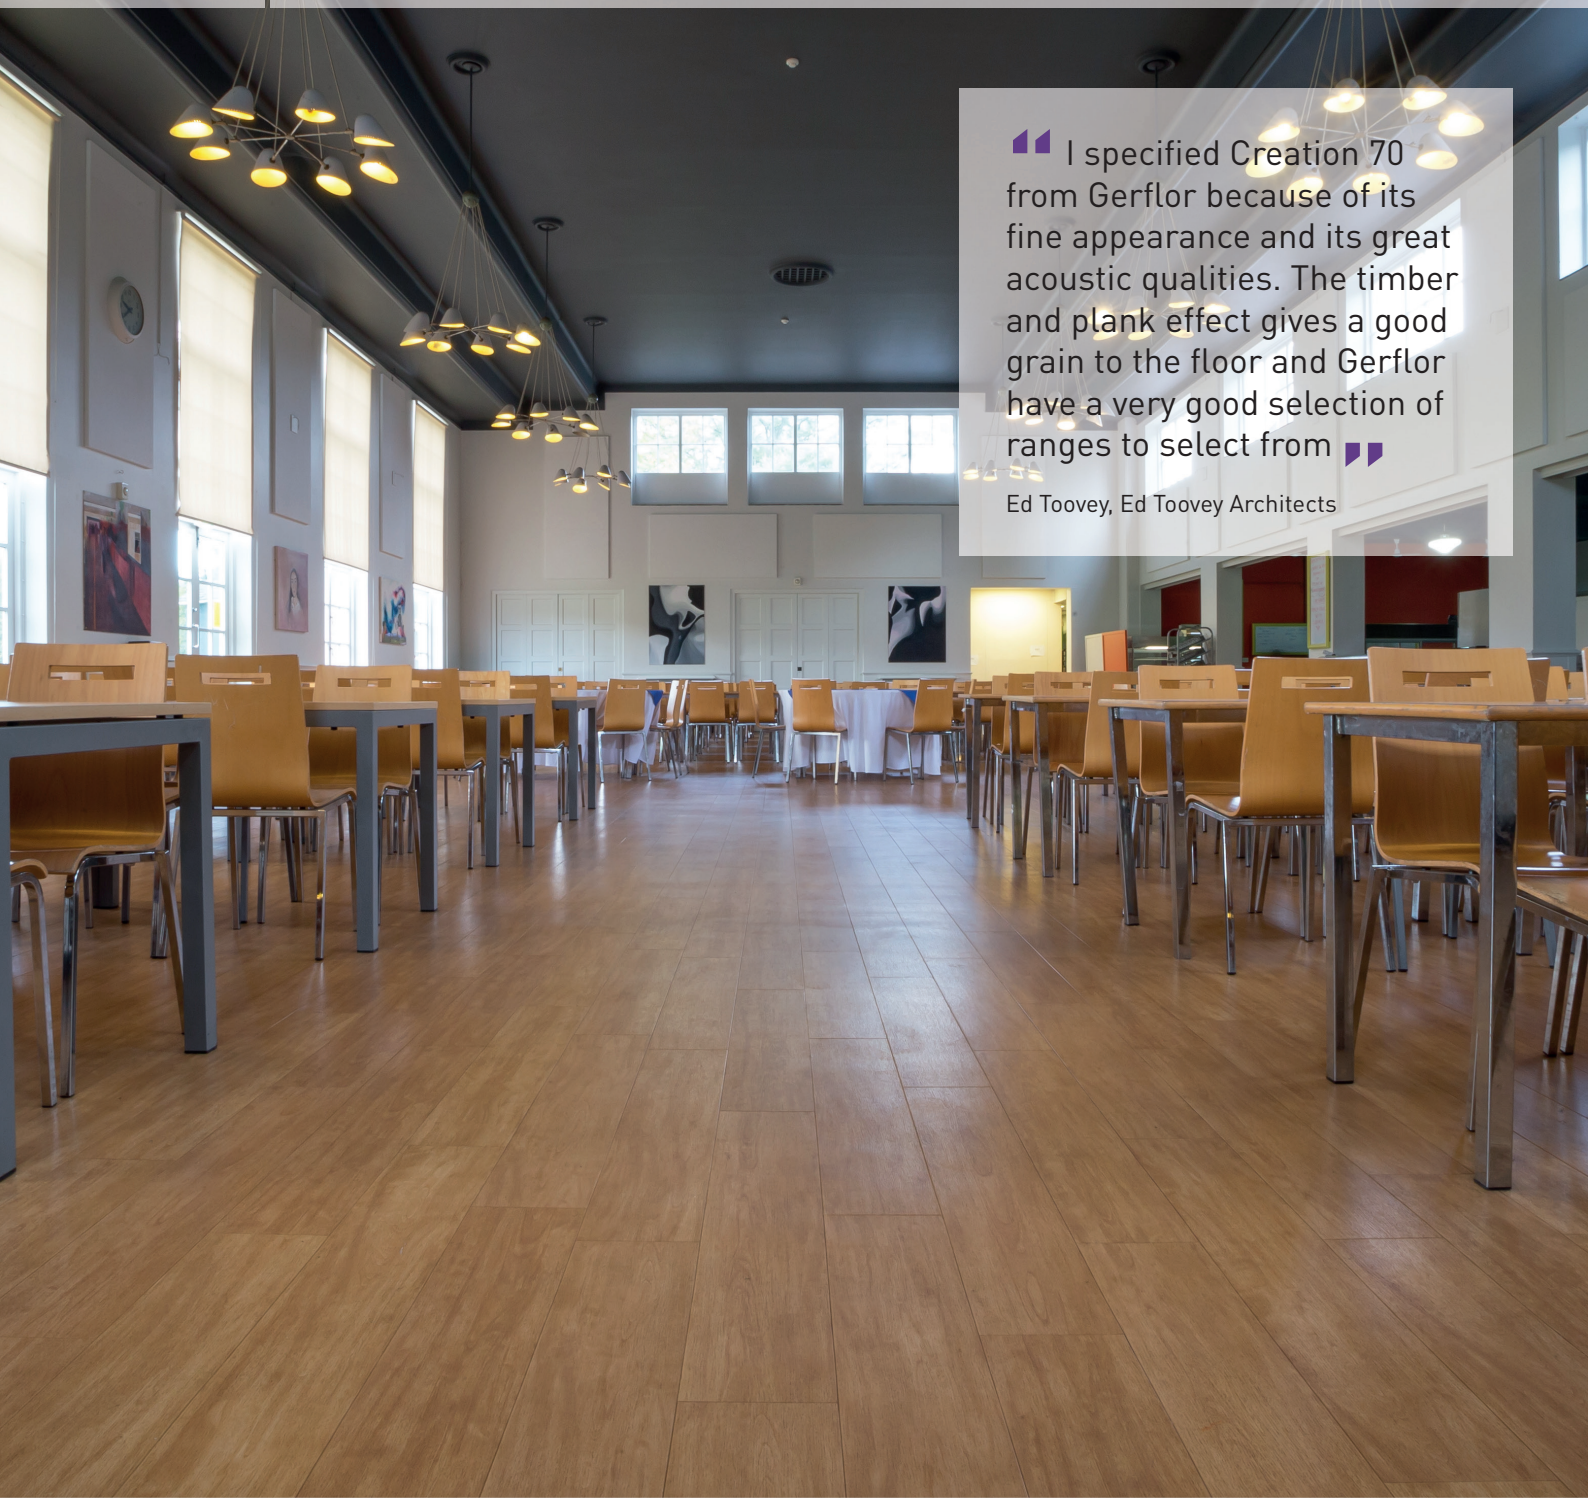
CLIENT: HIGHGATE SCHOOL, LONDON
SOLUTION: CREATION 70 CLIC SYSTEM



> "I specified Creation 70 from Gerflor because of its fine appearance and its great acoustic qualities. The timber and plank effect gives a good grain to the floor and Gerflor have a very good selection of ranges to select from"
>
> Ed Toovey, Ed Toovey Architects

Highgate School was established in 1565 by a Royal Charter of Queen Elizabeth the First. When Highgate School in North London wanted to carry out a major refurbishment they would turn to an Architect who would have their vested interests at heart, together with providing an eye for modern detail, whilst giving a nod towards the school's venerable past.

"The timeframe on the installation for this project was very tight indeed. It was the most challenging part of the actual job. Being able to use a flooring system like Clic that was quick to install was a real benefit. I would certainly specify Gerflor products again"
